CARDINALS LOSE NERVE YESTERDAY

Play Good Ball for Five Innings and Then Are Helpless.

LAUGHABLE COMEDY!

Local Boys Furnish Lots of Amusement For Washington Professionals Before Big Crowd.

The thousand or more children of the Alexandria public schools as well as the several hundred fans who journeyed out to the national ball park yesterday afternoon to witness the game between the Washington team and the Cardinals of this city were treated to one of the most amusing baseball comedies ever staged on any diamond. The Cardinals went into the game with a badly developed case of stage-fright, which increased with every inning until during the latter part of the game they were absolutely helpless.

For the first five innings they played a fair exhibition of amateur ball which was, of course, not in the remotest class with the game that Griffith's champions are showing, but after the fifth they went completely to pieces. The final score was 14 to 0, although the Washingtons endeavored in every possible way to let the local boys score a run.

There is one thing to be said in favor of the Cardinals, and that was their sticktoitiveness. They tried hard all the way, and several of the individuals made plays that would have done credit to their rivals who get real money for their work. Astryke, at first, was the Cardinals bright star, both afield and at the bat. With one exception he handled all his chances with approved style and whaled out two doubles, which were about the healthiest hits made by his team. Miller, at second, merited notice through his fielding, and while he was not able to hit, had the satisfaction of swiping a base on Alvah Williams.

The Alexandrians tried three pitchers, but none of them could stop the Nationals. Eighteen safeties were made and in this slugging Howard Shanks was the leader.

When the Cardinals took the field, little was known of their strength, so the Nationals played conservatively, but once the lead was taken all orthodox baseball was thrown to the gale that was lashing the park, and a late arrival would have had a hard time deciding whether he was at a baseball game of a turkey-trotting class.

Nick Altrock and Herman Schaeffer were the conspirators who led their team mates in the comedy. Cashion started to pitch but Altrock soon organized personally conducted cheering section and asked his cohorts if they wanted him to pitch. About five hundred in the right pavillion yelled "yes". Then Altrock appealed to Griffith, and the chief gave his consent, wherupon the fun started. When Altrock was not pitching he was umpiring behind the bat, overruling the regular umpire, chasing men off the coaching lines, and threatening the Nationals with dire punishment unless they ceased the flow of criticism that greeted every decision he made.

Then Altrock moved over to first base, fielding his position sitting on the bag, while Schaefer pitched. The Dutchman declined the assistance of the trio in the outer gardens and called them into the diamond, while the regular infielders moved up within 10 yards of the hitter. The whole team gathered nearer and nearer to Schaefer until they were all in the center of the diamond. The twirler then gave an order for company front, and simultaneously the eight wound up with Schaefer and went through with the motion of pitching. One of the visitors caught a slow ball on the end of his bat and drove it past third, whereupon the most of the team scampered after the leather, leaving Altrock alone to receive the return.

One feature of the contest which amused the crowd to no small degree was the steal of first by Altrock in the eighth inning. Nick hit safely to center and then stole second. Walking off the bag Nick continued to first, and duplicated Germany Schaefer's famous steal of first base, only Dutch made his great play against the Chicago White Sox. The Cardinals were up in the air or Nick would have been retired. All Herrel, who was on the mound, had to do, was to touch second and Altrock would have been out. Nick did not like the air around first, and again stole second, making a total of three stolen bases in one inning for the port wheeler.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

William D. Haywood, organizer for the Industrial Workers of the World, was sentenced to six months in the county jail at Paterson, N. J., yesterday afternoon on conviction of disorderly conduct. He went to Paterson in connection with the silk mill workers' strike. Haywood was arrested at a gathering of strikers. A second charge, that of causing unlawful assemblege, also was lodged against him. On this he was held for the grand jury, with the amount of his bail to be fixed later.

Walter H. Page, of Garden City, L. I. editor of World's Work and member of Doubleday, Page & Co., publishers, has accepted President Wilson's offer to be Ambassador to Great Britain. Mr. Page is one of the founders of the publishing firm of which he is a member. He has been prominent as a lecturer on politics and economics and at one time was editor of the Atlantic Monthly and of the Forum. He is 58 years old and is a "down homer;" that is, he is a native of North Carolina.

Ed. V. Boyd, W. M. Eagle, and A. L. Hurdle, conductor, engineer and fireman, respectively, on Southern Railway freight train No. 73, enroute from Salisbury to Asheville, N. C., were killed about 4 o'clock yesterday morning when the locomotive and 18 cars left the track at Oyama, between Hickory and Newton. When the locomotive turned turtle all three men were instantly killed. So far no explanation has been given of the wreck.

William Twiman, who killed his father and a deputy sheriff a year ago, was electrocuted yesterday morning in the Auburn, N. Y., prison. He ignored the chaplain in the final service, and was practically carried to the chair. Owing to a recent attack on Guard John Martin every preparation had been made to prevent a scene. Seven guards accompanied him from the cell and assisted in strapping him to the chair. Soon after his arrest Twiman assaulted the jailor and one of the court criers, and later tried to stab the sheriff at the jail. Alienists reported him sane.

"Don't think this is Vienna," cried a crowd of people gathered in front of the Servian legation in St. Petersburg yesterday to listen to a speech by the Servian minister to Russia. The people's protest was raised in this way against the action of the Russian police who rode them down, slashing right and left with their sabers. Anti-Austrian feeling was very keen among the demonstrators, who attempted to reach the Austro-Hungarian embassy. Great crowds of them marched in that direction shouting "Down with Austria" but the police drove them away with whips.

Twelve policemen were stationed inside the Grant street Reformed Presbyterian church in Pittsburgh, Pa., to prevent any possible outbreak among the warring factions of the board of trustees, at their meeting yesterday evening. Massed on one side was the faction which has been opposing the Rev. J. B. Wilson, the pastor, and his friends on the other side. For a time it appeared as if there would be a clinch, and as soon as the hostile members began jostling each other policemen appeared. It was discovered that dictographs were placed in the church by the pastor's enemies, so as to keep posted on his movements. Two elections were held, one by each faction, and the courts will be called upon to decide what side will control. The congregation is one of the wealthiest in the city.

METHODISTS FORM NEW DISTRICT HERE

Rev. D. H. Kern is Appointed Presiding Elder in This City.

REV. CANTER LEAVES.

Will Go to Harrisonburg and be Succeeded Here by Rev. J. W. Duffey of Winchester.

The creation of a new district in the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South to be known as the Alexandria district, with headquarters in this city, was announced last night at the conference of the Church which is being held in Staunton. Heretofore the churches in Alexandria and those of the surrounding counties have been under the Washington district.

Rev. D. H. Kern, D. D., at one time pastor of the church at Del Ray, Alexandria county, and for the last four years stationed at Winchester, has been named as presiding elder of the new district.

The churches and their pastors, which will be under his supervision are the following:

Alexandria—J. W. Duffey; Del Ray, E. A. Lambert; Clarendon, T. M. Swann; Falls Church, W. D. Keen; Fairfax, W. J. Whitzell; East Fairfax, E. D. Harrison (supply); Remington; H. L.Biven; Sudlers, W. P. C. Coe; Manassas, E. A. Rhodes; Prince William, L. R. Markwood; Stafford, H. S. Willey, (supply); Fredericksburg, J. R. Jacobs; Morrisville, C. E. Simmons; Dumfries, E. Q. Coe; Warrenton J. N. Mast; Leesburg, W. M. Waters; Hamilton, G. T. Tyler; Hillsboro, W. H. Marsh; Bluemont, F. T. Ridgeway; Loudon, S. V, Hildebrand; Middleburg, I. G. Michael; Marshall, A. A. P. Neel; Sterling, J. H. Kuhlman; Occoquan, L. B. Atkins; Fauquier, C. B. Sutton.

The most important change in Alexandria is that of Rev. H. M. Canter, D. D., who for the past three years has been pastor of the Washington street M. E. Church in this city and who has been transferred to Harrisonburg. His place will be taken by Rev. J. W. Duffey who is at present stationed at Staunton, Rev. Mr. Duffey was at one time presiding elder of the Washington district and is one of the best known pastors in the conference.

Rev. E. A. Lambert is assigned to Del Ray for another term. Rev. Chas. D. Bulla D. D., formerly of this city is re-appointed superintendent of the Adult Bible Class work of the church with headquarters in Nashville, Tenn.

Rev. Forrest J. Prettyman, D. D., who is the present presiding elder of the Washington district, which heretofore included Alexandria, and who was recently elected chaplain of the United States Senate, has been assigned to the Epworth Church, Washington. His place is taken by Rev. J. A. Anderson.

Rev. E. V. Regester, formerly pastor of the Washington street M. E. Church South and also presiding elder of the Baltimore district, is reassigned to Mount Vernon Place Church, Washington.

Rev. J. P. Stump, a former pastor of thi city, goes to Ingleside, Baltimore.

Alexandria will regret to lose Rev. Mr. Canter from the city. He has made a forceful impression upon the community both as a preacher and a man and his work here has been most successful.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.

George W. Jones, Former Policeman of This City, Dies in Augusta, Ga.

Mr. George W. Jones, of Augusta, Ga., while visiting his son, C. E. Jones, of Norfolk, Va., died Saturday, February 22. He was buried at Richmond, Va. Monday, February 24, with I. O. O. F., rites, a special committee from his Sarepta Lodge, No. 46, Alexandria, Va., attending, he being a past grand counselor of this Lodge, and a member for 47 years.

Mr. Jones was born in Manchester, England, and reared in Maryland. He leaves a widow and several children, among whom is Mrs. George Sutton, of this city.

The death of Mr. Jones will bring to minds of many now living an exciting scene in the streets of Alexandria on Sunday afternoon, May 5, 1872. A negro Odd Fellow died in Washington a few days before and his remains were kept above ground until Sunday, when it was brought to this city for interment. Nearly all the negroes of Washington followed the remains to this city, and before they left they started a fight on King street, defying the police and instituting a reign of terror. The police soon found themselves powerless to cope with the situation, citizens came to the rescue and excitement prevailed. The late Hugh Latham was Mayor of the city at the time, and he with the subjct of the above notice, who had been a member o fhe police force, went aboard one of the ferry boat, where several negroes who were principals in the disorder, had taken refuge. The steamer was densely packed with negroes, but notwithstanding their menaces and threats, the Mayor and Mr. James brought ashore two of the ringleaders and next morning they with others who had been arrested were brought before the Police Court where they received the maximum punishment provided.

TO VISIT PHILADELPHIA.

Alexandria Masons to Return Visit of W. L. Elkins Lodge.

Considerable interest is being manifested in Masonic circles over the proposed visit of the members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons of William L. Elkins Lodge of Philadelphia, June, 5, next. It is expected that fully 200 members of the local lodge will make the trip. The occasion will be the celebration of the sixth anniversary of Elkins lodge. The Alexandria Masons, headed by Worshipful Master Samuel W. Pitts, have aranged to leave Washington on a special train for Philadelphia the morning of June 5. Members of Elkins Lodge recently made a pilgrimage to this city..

MAKING FINE RECORD.

Miss Eva E. Cowling, who for twenty-three terms was principal of the West End School, near Alexandria, and who has many friends in this section of Virginia, is now principal of the Rivanna School near Wilmington, Va. She is making a most excellent record and the school under her charge is doing splendid work. At a recent meeting of the Fluvanna County Teachers' Association the different schools had exhibits and the Rivanna School was awarded the second prize. In this connection the Midland Virginian says:

"Rivanna Grammar Grade work also attracted much attention. It was of high order, and was lacking only in industrial exhibits, being equal to the grade departments of the two high schools in literary work."

Establishing a Blockade.

Vienna, April 1.—Austria-Hungary today began a blockade of the Adriatic coast of Montenegro. The blockade was ordered as a naval demonstration against the Balkan states to back up Austria-Hungary's demand that the siege of Scutari be lifted.

When Austria-Hungary made her representations to Montenegro and they were ignored, the ambassadors of the Powers at London held a consultation and advised the naval demonstration against Montenegro. It was intimated then that England might aid in the blockade.

A report, unconfirmed, was current today that King Nicholas of Montenegro would abdicate in favor of his son, Crown Prince Danilo. The king had his heart set on capturing Scutari, as the late King George took Salonika and Czar Ferdinand entered Adrianople.

U. S. MAY ANNEX A PART OF MEXICO

Senator Fall Says Northern Portion is Already Americanized.

DEMANDS FOR PEACE.

Interests in This Country Owns 45 Per Cent. of Wealth of Land of Montezumas.

Washington, April 1.—Unless the Huerta government at an early date conquers the rebel republic recently created by seceding northern states of Mexico, an attempt will probably be made to secure annexation of this northern territory to the United States, according to the opinion expressed today by Senator Fall, of New Mexico. Fall is one of the Senate committee investigating revolutionary activity along the border.

"Unless the northern states swing the rest of Mexico to their position, they will form a separate group of states permanently outside the old republic," Fall asserted. "Among the Mexicans in the states nearest the American border there is a strong demand for annexation. The people there are somewhat Americanized and they want peace.

"I have official figures snowing that American interests own 43 per cent of the total wealth of Mexico. This is pretty well distributed over the republic. The money total approximates $1,057,000,000. Mexican railroad stocks and bonds are owned to the extent of 77 per cent by Americans, their total investment being close to $640,000,000. In mining the American's share is $223,000,000 as against only $7,000,000 held by Mexicans. The Americans would probably favor annexation except for the fact that Mexican mining laws are much more favorable to concessionarires than those of this country."

Fall said estimates of damage to American property in Mexico by recent revolutions ran as high as $800,000,000.

CHARTER GRANTED.

The State Corporation Commission has granted a charter to Albert M. Keen (Inc.), with a legal domicile in this city. The maximum capital is given at $50,000 and the minimum at $7,000. The officers are as follows: A. M. Keen, president; F. H. Stephens, vice-president; Morris Needle, secretary and treasurer; all of Washington, D. C. The object of the company is merchant tailoring business.

A charter has been granted by the State Corporation Commission to the Bluemont Orchard Company, incorporated, Bluemont, Va., with a maximum capital stock of $20,000 and a minimum of $15,000. The officers are: A. L. Quaintance president, Jesse R. Stone, vice-president, both of Washington; W. L. Hall, secretary, Bluemont.

THE MEAT SITUATION.

The meat situation in Alexandria would have reached serious proportions had not the Armour and Swift packing companies taken prompt action to supply section of the country with carload shipments of fresh meats from their packing plants at Fort Worth, Texas, where some of the largest packing establishments in the world are located. The first of the shipments for Alexandria are expected to arrive in this city by Friday by way of Atlanta.

MASONIC NOTICE.

A called communication of Alexandria-Washington lodge No. 22 A.F. and A. M., will be held tonght, April 1st, in Masonic Temple at 7:30 for work.

BOATMEN WITNESS BOUTS.

Lively Fistic Contests at Smoker of Old Dominion Boat Club.

Five lively bouts between members of the club with a fast exhibition in which Washington knights of the padded glove participated an da battle royal between four Washington negroes furnished lots of sport last night at the smoker of the Old Dominion Boat Club in their club house on the Potomac. It was one of the most interesting events the club has ever pulled off and was attended by many visitors from Washington as well as the members of the clubs and their guests from Alexandria.

During the intervals between the athletic events the Alexandria Mandolin Club played several selections and solos were sung by Forrest Birrell and Kenneth Ogden.

The annual election of officers of the Old Dominion will be held tomorrow night.

OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED.

Scottish Rite Masons to Hold Meeting Tomorrow Night.

The recently elected officers of Randolph Chapter, Rose Croix, No. 3, Scottish Rite Masons, as well as those of Virginia Consistory, No. 2, will be installed at special meetings of both of these bodies which will be held in Masonic Temple tomorrow night. ## BODY OF MORGAN AT HOTEL IN ROME

Great Money King Believed to Have Died of Starvation.

SO SAY THE DOCTORS.

Usual Feverish Gayety in Hostelry. No Cessation in Noise of Dancing and Blare of Orchestras.

Rome, April 1.—Surrounded by mountains of floral tributes from the royalty, big business and society of every nation, the body of J. Pierpont Morgan today lay in the Grand Hotel, while relatives planned for its removal to America.

With every necessity and luxury that money could buy at his command, Morgan actually died of starvation. This fact, startling in its contemplation, was stated by his physicians who said that all the artifice of modern medical science could not get nourishment into the man's system because of the failure of functional nerves to do their work.

While the body of the great Morgan, watched over only by six paid employes, lay in his $500-a-day suite that had been twice occupied by kings, and his relatives were all gathered in an adjoining room where Mrs. Satterlee, his daughter, required a physician's care, the usual feverish gayety went on uninterrupted throughtout the Grand Hotel.

The noise of dancing, the raucus calls of chauffeurs and and carriage starters at the entrance, the blare of orchestras and the shouts of gamblers—all the discordant sounds of revelry that the physicians said were in part responsible for the sudden collapse of Morgan, went on as usual up to the gray hours of the morning, just as if the body of the powerful monarch of finance did not lie almost unattended on the second floor. And it might have been that some of the revelers did not know it.

When the undertakers finished their task today permission was given by Mrs. Satterlee for Albion Polaceks, a Philadelphia art student, to make a death mask of the financier. Polaceks is studying in the Amerlean Academy here, financed by Morgan's money, and his study was financed by Morgan.

The Morgan party here occupied the palatial royal suite always taken by Morgan in the Grand Hotel. It consists of two salons with eight sleeping apartments, on the second floor of the hotel. It has a private outside entrance, on the southeast corner of the building, and once was occupied by the late King George of Greece. King Gustaf, of Sweden, also had the suite at one time.

The body of J. Pierpont Morgan will be taken to New York by steamer tomorrow from Cherbourg, if Herbert L. Satterlee can make such arrangement.

TURKEY WILL ACCEPT TERMS.

Dmands of Allies Declared to be Exorbitant.

Constantinople, April 1.—Turkey has agreed to accept unconditionally the terms of peace offered by the powers. The Ottoman foreign office today announced the acceptance in a note to the diplomats accredited to Constantinople.

It does not necessarily mean the immediate end of the Balkan war, as the allies and the powers have not yet agreed on peace terms. The powers were asked by Turkey to mediate and the London ambassadors proposed a basis of peace. The Balkan allies failed to accept and issued a note to the Powers, stating their indemnity and territorial demands. The powers, through the ambassadors characteried the demands of the allies as exorbitant.

Proclaimed King.

Paris, April 1.—The Duc de Montpensier today was proclaimed king of Albania by the provisional government of that country according to a special dispatch from Brindisi to the Paris Excelsior.

EXIT OF MARCH.

March, according to the tradition, went out like a lion last night. The weather yesterday morning had been mild and spring-like, but in the afternoon the wind suddenly shifted to the northwest from which quarter it blew great guns toward the close of the day and at times throughout the night. The temperature also fell considerably.

JOHNSON CASE DISMISSED.

The long pending suit of the U. S. Government against Theodore Johnson, charged with tresspass upon government property was dismissed yesterday afternoon by Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., who held a special session of the United States District Court for the purpose of disposing of the litigation. The court ordered the government to pay the cost of the suit.

FORFEITED COLLATERAL.

There was no session of the Police Court this morning. The only case in the dock was that of a woman residing in the northeastern section of the city, who was charged with disorderly conduct towards a young Alexandrian. She left $5 collateral for her appearance but she was not present at 9 o'clock and forfeited the deposit.

SIMPSON INDICTED.

The grand jury in Washington yesterday indicted Arthur Simpson, owner of the motorboat Lotis, which was capsized in the Potomac river May 26 last, in a collision with the steamer Angler, for manslaughter. The indictment charges Simpson with being responsible for the death of Sarah Neilson, who lost her life by drowning as a result of the collision.

This accident, it will be remembered, occurred on a Sunday night off Shepherd's opposite Alexandria. The Lotis was on her way to Washington, having taken two women aboard at a river resort.

CITY TO BE CLEANED UP

Health Officers to Start Next Monday on Making Alexandria Clean City

The work of making Alexandria a clean city is to begin next week commencing on Monday, it is the intention of the city health department, under the direction of Dr. E. A. Gorman, health officer and Dr. James J. Garvey, deputy health officer, to begin an active crusade against the dirty yards, alleys and stores in the city.

The health officers will have the cooperation of the Police force, the Civic Improvement League, under whose direction, a house to house canvass will be made for the purpose of public inspection of yards, cellars and alleys. Vavant lots are to receive some attention as well.

The Boy Scouts of Alexandria will probably be enlisted in support of the work, especially where their own yards are concerned. It is the desire o fthe health officials that every resident of the city take personal interest in clean up week and make every effort to gather all rubish in their yards and cellars which is to be carted away as soon as provision can be made for the purpose by the health department.

TO OPEN HEADQUARTERS.

Washington Scouts Expected to Visit Alexandria Tonight.

Troop No. 1, Boy Scouts of America will open their reading room to the public tonight. During the evening there will be short addresses delivered by invited guests from this city and Washington. Two troops of Boy Scouts from Washington will be present to help in the evening entertainment also Lord Percy of England, with a troop of English Boy Scouts.

The clergymen of all the churches the Mayor and Police Justice H. B. Caton are also expected to be present.

The public is most cordially invited to attend, exercises which commence at 8 o'clock.

SENT TO GRAND JURY.

Deputy United States Marshal Schoeni yesterday arrested Charles Dick, colored, on the charge of breaking and robbing the postoffice at Victoria, Spotsylvania county. The accused was brought before U. S. Commissioner Foster at Fredericksburg and held for the grand jury of the United States District Court. The prosecution was conducted by the new Assistant District Attorney Smith.

SOLDIERS AT LYCEUM.

All arrangements have been completed for the vaudeville show at Lyceum Wednesday, April 2, and a fine program has been arranged. Particular mention is made of the series of tableaux representnig historical events in history of Maryland. The costumes were designed and made by Sergt. Kuhn, a master gunner at the fort, and are true in every delatil. The balance of program is equally good and shows excellent taste, all being directed by Chaplain Ferry. An open air concert will be held at 7:30 p. m., and a street parade at 5:30 p. m.

New Spring Millinery; Styles Becoming to Every Face

With delightful changing from the picturesque and deftly posing of feathers, to simple drapes and ribbon tailored bows; charming variations in flower trimming—the hats are so full of style and the allurement of fashion that any type of face can be suited.
Models of Parisian designing, each one a distinct creation without a counterpart, imparting exclusiveness and that perfection of mode that fashion caters to with undiminishing enthusiasm.
HATS of our own designing with character and distinctiveness seldom achieved except in the imported models. Each interpreted style tendency of newest vogue, acurately and artistically executed and brought to its most fashionable conclusion.
Of especial interest, amid the bewildering array of shapes and color treatments, is the showing of dainty Poke Bonnet models. These are fashioned of fine hemp, in black and pretty new spring shades. The trimming of flat ribbon bow, wreath of small flowers with band of velvet extending over the crown, gives a refined and charming effect of newness and individuality.

COURT SPREADS SMALLPOX.

Virginia Sheriff Contracts Disease and Others Becomes Infected.

Wytheville, Va., April 1.—Smallpox has broken out in this section. At the recent term of the Carroll County Circuit Court several officials, including the Sheriff, broke out with what was pronounced chicken pox by the Board of Health. More recent developments show that it was smallpox. Lawyers and litigants from the adjoining counties of Wythe, Pulaski and Grayson were exposed to the disease.

The Deputy Sheriff of Pulaski county who was doing guard service in the Bernard Allen trial, is down with the disease. Since court adjourned Floyd Landreth, Commonwealth Attorney of Caroril County, has broken out. A young man from Cripple Creek section, this county, who attended the court, is sick. He is supposed to have smallpox.

JAW FRACTURED.

Result of Argument Over Hillsville Case.

Richmond, Va., April 1.—A. B. Fower, proprietor of a grocery at 1839 Venable street, is in the Memorial Hospital with a fractured jaw as a result of an argument over the Allen case in which he took the part of an Allen sympathizer.

Fowler was injured last Friday night, but the matter was not brought to the attention of the police until yesterday, when his attorney, Edgar B English, asked that the grocer's assailant be found and arrested.

Fowler was eating in Doyle's cafe, 608 East Broad street Friday night when a man near him began talking about the Allens, who had been electrocuted that day. The man was of the opinion the case had been disposed of in a manner entirely satisfactory. Fowler, whose sympathies were entirely on the side of the Allens, expressed himself forcibly to the contrary.

The exchange of words between the two men waxed warm at times, but neither attempted to drive home an argument with his fist and Fowler supposed when he left the cafe that he had heard the last of it.

Later the two men met and engaged in a fight with the result given above.

SUFFOLK REMAINS "DRY."

Local Optionists Win by 88 Majority After Bitter Fight

Suffolk, Va., April 1.—After a bitter campaign lasting a month Suffolk yesterday, in the local-option election, voted to remain in the "dry" column.

The majority was 88 out of a total of 805. The "drys" polled 444 votes, the "wets," 356, and 2 votes were void.

Suffolk went "dry" years ago after one of the most sensational campaigns in the history of the city by a majority of 257; two years ago the "dry" majority was 55.

Material prosperity, increase of business and a decrease of crime were the arguments used by the "drys."

Dr. Perryman and Dr. Smoot of Norfolk, Monday night addressed monster mass meetings.

Dies From Poisoned Tart.

Basic City, Va., April 1.—Clinton Bridge, a respectable workingman, died a few days ago shortly after eating his dinner. He was employed at Glenn's lumber yard, and his wife brought his dinner to him. With his dinner were some cream tarts. After tasting one of them he said it was bitter, and threw the rest in the fire. The efforts of three physicians failed to relieve him, and he died shortly afterwards.

The coroner's verdict was death from poisoning, supposed to be strychnine. It is not known how the poison got into the tarts. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Man Drowned.

Richmond, April 1.—Charles E. Hill, fifty years old, a cook of 311 Louisiana street, was drowned Sunday morning about 8 o'clock and two of his companions had a narrow escape when a boat they were rowing was capsized in the James river at the foot of Denny street.

John Jurgens and Frank Harris were the two who were in the boat with him. The latter made a heroic attempt to save Hill, but was forced to let go of him after a brief struggle on account of the swiftness of the current.

The three men were employed on a steam dredge which is helping to widen the channel of the river and which is anchored opposite the Richmond Cedar Works, Harris and Jurgens lived aboard the dredge.

SOUTHERN METHODISTS.

Bishop Wilson Says Modern Preachers are Not as Effective as Were Their Fathers.

Staunton, Va., April 1.—The Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, disposed of the Randolph-Macon controversy without discussion by adopting a report of the Board of Education approving the course of Rev. Dr. F. J. Prettyman as presented in a paper offered at the opening of the conference.

The report showed that all of the educational institutions of the conference were in an encouraging condition. The ministers were urged to co-operate in the work of increasing the endowment fund of Randolph-Macon College at Ashland, Va. Dr. S. C. Hatcher, of Randolph-Macon system, addressed the conference in the interest of the college. He said there were 26 men at Randolph-Macon College studying for the ministry, 23 from the Virginia Conference and 3 from the Baltimore Conference, and added that more money was needed if the college was to continue its present high standard of work.

The report of the committee on temperance highly commended the work of the Anti-Saloon League and asked that the pulpits of the conference be opened to it. The report also commended the passage of the Webb bill and the recent victory in West Virginia. The plan of the Maryland League to start a fight for State-Wide Prohibition if the Local Option bill is defeated was unanimously endorsed.

Before leaving for his home Bishop Wilson addressed the conference. He said he wished he could lift the conference to the evangelistic level of the fathers of the church. The preachers today are not as eager for salvation of souls as were those of earlier days, he said. "Our fathers did not write little essays merely to please the people, but preached real sermons and were desperately in earnest about the salvation of men," he said.

Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema

Since the old-fashioned theory of curing eczema through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, glycerine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin troubles but none that we can recommend as highly as this for we know that D.D.D. stops the itch at once. We can give you a trial size bottle for 25 cents that will be enough to prove it.

Of course all other druggists have D.D.D. Prescription—go to them if you can't come to us—but don't accept some big profit substitute.

But if you come to our store, we are so certain of what D.D.D. will do for you that we offer you a full size bottle on this guarantee:—If you do not find that it takes away the itch AT ONCE, it costs you not a cent.

SATISFIED WITH PRESENT OFFICIALS.

It is gratifying to the community to realize that their state and city officers, men who have held the positions for years are in every way acceptable to the people that they have so faithfully served—so much so that they will be allowed to be their own successors. As has been stated in the Gazette, the time for filing applications for the coming primary election expired last Saturday. At that time only the present incumbents had signified their purpose to offer themselves as candidates. Hence they will have a complete walkover.

The present city and state officers have long been in harness, and that the community has perfect confidence in their ability and integrity is best shown by the fact that they have no competitors.

Fortunately Alexandria has no issues which would-be public servants could mount, and the people are in no way disposed to try experiments when they have all that could be desired in their present courteous and faithful officials.

While there are more or less political turmoils in other cities, Alexandria continues for years the same public officials. There have, however, at long intervals been upheavals, but everything soon settled down to former conditions.

In 1876 the historical "potato-bug" ticket, the outcome of needless agitation, was used at the polls. The names of policemen, board of health, overseer of the porohouse, in short, every office previously filled by the people or the City Council appeared on this document which was about a yard long.

The people soon became tired of this new departure, and the charter of the city was changed the next year, since which time normal conditions have prevailed.

It is gratifying to know that the city is to be spared an exciting primary election, as the people are determined to let well enough alone by continuing the present officials in their respective positions.

WOULD ABOLISH CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

The miscarriage of the different plans to enable the Aliens to escape the just recompense of the reward of murder has rendered some who espoused their cause from the beginning to launch a movement intended to abolish punishment in Virginia for all save one crime. Advocates of this unwise movement have rushed to garrets and brought out old lances and helmets worn by misguided persons years ago who strangely imagined themselves wiser than that which has been written, and who started on crusades for the purpose of leading people to believe that we are living in an age when such a penalty for any crime is brutal, obsolete and in no way applicable in the present day.

Such champions insist that capital punishment is a relic of barbarism, and suggest that the laws of Moses not only provided for a death sentence upon such as committed murder, but it was also to be visited upon those guilty of what would be termed misdemeanors in our time.

This may be so, but such enthusiasts seem to lose sight of the fact that the death penalty for murder was in vogue several centuries before the law was given from Mount Sinai.

Before the deluge we are told "violence filled the earth," and it is significant that as soon as Noah emerged from the ark the command was given from heaven, "Whoso sheddeth man's bolod by man shall his blood he shed." It is further stated in language which cannot be misunderstood that the Deity will hold man responsible for failing to carry out this law the first by the way, ever given to the human race.

At that time there was no Jew nor Gentile, and the patriarch stood as the representative of the entire human race.

Four thousand years have elapsed since the Creator enjoined this law upon man, and there has been no time in the subsequent history of the planet when it would have been safe to rescind it. That we are not living in the Millennium must be apparent to all observant people.

Funeral services in connection with King George of Greece were in progress yesterday and bells are now tolling his requiem. A few days ago he was slain in the streets of Salonika.

There have been times when thoughtless representatives of the people in certain states of the union have imagined they could get along without the gibbet and have relegated that instrument to the owls and bats. In most cases the terrible mistake was soon apparent by the increased number of murders, and that too, of the most horrid nature.

In one state where the legislature had abolished capital punishment a widow and a man she desired to marry administered slow poison to a little girl, daughter of the would-be-bride, in order that the latter could marry the man without any "incumbrance." When the facts of the case became known the people clamored for capital pnishment for murderers in future.

Instead of abolishing this necessary safeguard in Virginia, we had better let the present statute become as a law of the Medes and Persians which changeth not.

AN EASY TASK.

It takes money to run a newspaper? What an exaggeration. What a whopper. It doesn't take any money to run a newspaper. It can run without money. It is not a business venture. It is a charitable institution, a begging concern, a highway robber. The newspaper is a child of the air, a creature of a dream. It can go on and on end on, when any other concern would be in the hands of the receiver and wound up with cobwebs in the windows.

It takes wind to run a newspaper; it takes gall to run a newspaper. It takes scintillating, acrobatic imagination, half a dozen white shirts and a railroad pass to run a newspaper. But money! Heavens to Betsy and six hands around. Who ever needed money to conduct a newspaper? Kind words are the medium of exchange that do the business for the editor—kind words and church social tickets. When you se an editor with money, watch him. He'll be paying his bills and disgracing his profession. He likes a swap.

Then when you die, after you have stood around for years and sneered at the editor and his little Jim Crow paper, be sure that you have your wife send in for three extra copies by one of your weeping children, and when she reads the generous and touching notice about you, forewarn her to neglect to send the editor nine cents. It would overwhelm him. Money is a corrupting thing. The editor knows it, and what he wants is your heartfelt thanks; then he can thank the printers and they thank grocers. Give your job work to a traveling man and then ask for half rates for church notices. Get your lodge letter heads and stationary printed out of town and then flood the editor with beautiful thoughts in resolutions of respect and cards of thanks. They make such spicy reading, and you are so proud of our local paper when you pick it up filled with these glowing mortuary artices.

But money—scorn the filthy thing! Don't let the pure innocent editor know anything about it. Keep that for sordid tradespeople who charge for their wares. The Lord loves a cheerful giver. He takes care of the editor. He has a charter from the state to act as a doormat for the community. He will get out the paper somehow; and stand for the town and whoop it up for you when you run for office. Don't worry about the editor—he'll get on. The Lord knows how—but somehow.—Hastings-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., News.

SWAT THE FLY.

As goes by each Spring-like day,
In your work or in your play,
One real task please don't delay,
Swat the fly.

Kill one now, a million then
Won't be born to pester men,
Every day kill nine or ten,
Swat the fly.

Never let your wrath appease,
Faithful swatters you should seize,
Wade in fly-gore to your knees,
Swat the fly.

Weeks from now 'twill be too late,
You should start this very date,
Kill the pests that we all hate,
Swat the fly.

But the fools are ever here,
Life would truly seem less drear,
If the fools came once a year.

FICKLE APRIL.

(Communicated.)

We are just entering this capricious month, and we do not know whether we are glad or sorry. The name is derived from the Latin verb "to open," because April is supposed to open the buds, a feat, however, reserved sometimes for May in this peculiar climate. April to us is akin or bears a strong resemblance to Mr. Job Trotter in Pickwick papers who could always conjure up a flood of tears at the very shortest notice. One moment it smiles radiantly, the next it is weeping bitterly April is loved by hat dealers and umbrella menders. These sudden showers of tears spoil new hats and necessitate the purchase of umbrellas Malice loving youths make fools of the credulous on the first day of this delightful month but April herself keeps it up to the very last. A genial sunshine tempts your faith in low shoes a new coat and hat; if you are of the masculine gender, or in silk and satins and a huge bonnet if of the feminine, and you stray away from the places of shelter in a state of the most verdant confidence, when lo, of a sudden—instantly as it were—the sky is overcast and down pours the blinding rain in another deluge. Just when you are dripping wet, when your paraphernalia is thoroughly saturated, away whisks the clouds and the sun laughs out in your face again. It is no consolation for you to reflect that—you do not wish to sacrifice all you wear for their development. You would put up with a few flowers less for a dry walk. But such is April, and your only remedy is to grin and bear it.

"April showers
Bring forth May flowers,"

Present Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

Valerous Ross vs. Anderson Ross. in Chancery.

Upon the application of the complainant, stating specifically the last known place of abode of defendant, and process having been issued and returned of the Sergeant's, showing the defendant not being found within the jurisdiction of the Court the court on this 19th day of March, 1913, doth grant the following order of publication:

The object of this suit is to obtain for the complainant, a divorce from the bond of matrimony from the defendant, on the ground of wilful desertion and abandonment, and for general relief, and an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendant, Anderson Ross is not a resident of the State of Virginia, it os ordered that he do appear here within fifteen days after due publication, and do what is necessary to protect his interests in this suit.

And it is further ordered that a copy of said order of publication be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published in the City of Alexandria, Virginia, that a copy be posted at the front door of the court house of said city on or before the next succeeding rule day after this order is entered and that a copy of order of said publication shall be sent by registered mail by the Clerk of this Court, addressed to the said non-resident defendant at Rockville, Maryland, his last known place of abode.

RETURNS TO MARYE FAMILY.

Historic Home at Fredericksburg Purchased by George T. Marye.

"Brompton," the old home of the Marye family, and since the war known as Marye Heights, at Fredericksburg, which has had several owners since the closing of the war, has recently returned to the Marye family, having been purchased by George Thompson Marye, of San Francisco, now residing in Washington. Mr. Marye is a multi-millionaire, and belongs to a collateral branch of the Marye family which removed to California many years ago.

"Brompton" was built by the late John L. Marye early in the last century. He was an eminent lawyer in his day and accumulated a large fortune. He was the father of the late Lieut. Governor John L. Marye, and of Col. Morton Marye, recent state auditor of Virginia.

Capt. M. B. Rowe, present mayor of Fredericksburg, has owned the property for a number of years and having ample means, has kept it in excellent condition. Mr. Marye will use the residence as his home part of the year.

The mansion is beautifully situated, commanding a view of the city of Fredericksburg on one hand and the valley of the Rappahannock and the winding river by that name, on the other side. It is visited yearly by thousands of tourists on account of its association with some of the bloodiest battles the world has ever seen.

Eigthy-nine were killed and many wounded in a desperate 16-hour battle Friday and Saturday at Lampazos, 80 miles south of Laredo Texas, between a handful of federals and 800 followers of Venustiano Carranza, rebel governor of Coahuila. The attacking forces are reported to have wrought destruction by the use of dynamite. Col. Pascual Orozco, Sr., father of the former northern revolutionary, has been executed by order of Emiliano Zapata, rebel leader of Southern Mexico.

The Ohio river became stationary at Huntington, W. Va., Monday night and at noon yesterday was falling slowly. Relief committees took up the work of feeding and caring for the 5,000 homeless. About 100 houses between Huntington an Kenova, W. Va., it is reported, have been carried down the river by the flood.

Despoiled of her Tresses.

Phillipsburg, N. J., April 1.—Attacked on her way home Sunday night, Mary Loux, aged 17, of North Main street was robbed of her hair by an unidentified man.

The man sprang at her from the darkness of a porch, seized her about the arms, and, after a struggle, slashed off her hair close to the scalp. It is believed that he used a razor. Miss Loux reached her home, then swooned, and suffered such a nervous shock that physicians are in attendance.

The young woman had a remarkably heavy mass of dark hair. She wore it loose down her back ,extending below the waist, and it was greatly admired.

Man Beaten Man May Die.

Millville, N. J., April 1.—Beaten into insensibility and left for dead, Benjamin Kindley was found lying in a pool of blood in West Millvile late Sunday night. Kindley charges Wilbert Clevenger with being his assailant, and the police are now looking for the man.

Kindley's head was beaten almost to a pulp, an da doctor found it necessary to take 28 stitches to close the wounds. The man may die.

The police state that there is a woman in the case.

Wind Cuts Swath.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., April 1.—A terrific 20-minute wind, rain and hail storm yesterday afternoon cut a quarter of a mile swath through the estates of Thomas Newbold, Mrs. James Roosevelt, mother of Assistant Secretary of Navy F. D. Roosevelt, and J. Roosevelt. Immense trees were leveled, but no one was injured.

Fatal Accident to Farmer.

Cape Charles, Va., April 1.—Alexander C. Carpenter, a farmer forty years old, fell from a wagon at Cheriton yesterday afternoon, breaking his neck. He was engaged in hauling crates from the railroad station, when one of them fell from a heavily loaded wagon and landed upon the back of a mule which he was driving, causing the animal to run away. In his efforts to check the animal he was thrown from the vehicle beneath the wagon which passed over his head and neck. He leaves a wife and one child.

Hoboken, N. J., April 1.—Judge Minturn grated a writ or habeas corpus on behalf of Haywood this morning at 9:30. The writ is returnable at Paterson on Saturday morning.

WILL NOT KISS BIBLE.

Declines to Place His Lips to Outside of Good Book.

Richmond, April 1.—Adolph Volkman, 204 West Marshall street, shattered precedent yesterday in Justice Crutchfield's court by refusing to kiss the Bible while taking an oath because, he said, the covers of the book were germ-laden.

He would not recede from his position, insisting in the face of the judge's peremptory command to place his lips to the outside covering of the Bible that he was courting death to do so. Smallpox germs were mentioned as one variety that might be lurking in the covers.

"That book is all right; kiss it," said Justice Crutchfield, sternly.

"It's dangerous; I'll not," replied Volkman.

Before the judge recovered from the shock of this fast refusal, Volkman compromised by opening the Bible and lightly touching his lips to a printed page. It was something unheard of in the long history of the court.

Volkman was present to give $500 bond for the temporary release of his son, F. C. Volkman, 26 years old, who was arrested on complaint of the Washington police. It was necessary for the father to take oath as to what he was worth before he could be accepted as a bondsman. The formality required the use of the Bible.

The younger Volkman was arrested Sunday and liberated on bail until his appearance yesterday morning. The bond was renewed with the understanding that Attorney H. M. Smith, Jr., would deliver Volkman into the custody of Detective Sergeant Muller, of Washington, in time to be taken to the national capital at noon today. This he did.

Volkman is charged with grand larceny. According to Detective Sergeant Mullen he obtained a $150 diamond ring from Miss Frances L. Beck, of Washington, with whom he was on friendly terms and pawned it for $12. This was done with the girl's consent. He gave her the pawn tickets and later restored the ring to her, Mullen said.

It developed afterwards, it is charged, that a worthless imitation diamond had been substituted for the genuine stone before the ring was returned to Miss Beck. She complained to the police that she had been swindled.

Recovered From Severe Lung Trouble

While we all know that plenty of fresh air and good food are necessary to persons suffering from lung trouble, something more is needed to bring about full health. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for throat and lung troubles, and so many reports have been received showing that it brought about good results in a number of cases which were declared hopeless, that all sufferers who are not benefiting otherwise, should, at least investigate what it has done for others. It may be the means of restoring you to health. Investigate this case:—

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, and March, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which confined me several weeks each time to my bed. These left me very weak and I coughed at nights and could not sleep. My appetite also failed me. My doctor advised me to go West. So, in September, 1909, I planned to go, but I had four more hemorrhages, which put me in bed for three weeks.

"In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival, I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative. In about two months, I began to feel better. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I think I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alterative for my health. If I can help any other person suffering from Tuberculosis, I will gladly do so."

(Sworn affidavit) PAUL L. FASNACHT.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

THE TEST THAT TELLS.

Is The Test of Time. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Tet.

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills.

The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Anine Scott, 110 Prince street, strong friend to Doan's Kidney Pills Alexandria, Va., says: "I am the same today, as I was in 1910 when I publicly told of the cure they had made for me. This cure has been lasting, but I occasionally use Doan's Kidney Pills as a preventive. I had pains in my back and I could not rest well. In the morning I always felt tired and worn out and I also had dizzy spells. Doan's Kidney Pills did such good world that it is a pleasure to recommend them to other kidney sufferers."

An ordinance regulating the speed of automobiles ond other vehicles in the City of Alexandria, and providing certain regulations for vehicles in using the streets.

Be it ordained by the City Council of Alexandria, that the following speed limit be fixed for horses, automobiles, motorcycles and other vehicles traveling over and upon the streets of the City of Alexandria, to-wit:

At intersection of two or more streets, six miles per hour.

On King street, 12 miles per hour.

On all other streets, 12 miles per hour.

That any person driving any horse, wagon, automobile, motorcycle or other vehicle upon or over the streets of the City of Alexandria at a greater rate of speed than that above provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars.

That it shall be unlawful for any person driving any automobile, motorcycle or other vehicle to pass any street car which has stopped for the purpose of discharging passengers, without first coming to a stop, and giving warning. All persons riding or driving any automobile, motorcycle, wagon, or other vehicle over the streets of the city shall keep to the right hand side of the street and in turning corners, if turning to the right, shall keep close to the right hand curb and if turning to the left shall cross the intersecting street and make a square turn so as to enter the street on the right hand side. In stopping any vehicle on any street in the City of Alexandria, it shall be stopped so that the vehicles shall be next to the curb on the driver's right.

Vehicles traveling east and west shall have the right of way over those traveling north and south.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance for which no other penalty is fixed, shall be subject to a fine of not less than one dollar nor more than ten dollars.

And this ordinance shall be in effect from and after its passage.

Flood Conditions Brighter.

Columbus, Ohio, April 1.—Early reports to Governor Cox today indicated that a general brightening of flood conditionsin the afflicted Ohio district. The river had reached its crest at Cincinnati and normal conditions were in sight. General cleaning up was in progress everywhere and communication was rapidly being restored. There has been no material change in the death list as reported yesterday and from every community where the flood was felt were coming reports today of missing persons turning up.

While every able-bodied man and woman who could be utilized was at work cleaning out the houses, outbuildings, alleys and streets in the west side from which the water has receded, Coroner Benkert and another force of men were searching the farm lands in the vicinity of Greenlawn and Mount Calvary cemeteries where there is a large flat area still under water with enormous quantities of wreckage piled up. If there are any additional bodies of victims of the west side inundation they will be found there.

The relief committee today asked for $200,000 immediately to be used exclusively on the west side. The committee has been overwhelmed with demands for sanitary conveniences shovels, brooms, buckets and stoves as well as odd pieces of furniture of all descriptions. The stoves are an imperative necessity and are being bought wherever possible.

TRUSTEES SALE OF RESIDUE.

Trustee's sale of the residue of the "Belvoir" or "White House" tract of land locate in Mt. Vernon Magisterial Distrat, Fairfax County, Va., containing aproximately 1100 acres with improvements.

By virtue of the authority vested in us by the will of Philip Otterback, deceased, and under decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax county, Va., in the suit of Otterback vs. Bohrer, at its March term, 1913, the undersigned trustees will offer for sale at public auction, in front of the Royal Street entrance to the Market House in Alexandria, Virginia, at the above described property.

This tract, the old home of Lord Fairfax and separated from George Washington's home at Mt. Vernon, by Dogue Creek, originally consisted of approximately twenty-seven hundred (2,700)acres,of which 1,500 acres has been taken by the United States Government for a school of Equitation or Horsemanship. The balance between ten and twelve hundred acres consists of valuable farming lands and about eight hundred (800) acres of valuable timber. It has a large deep water frontage on the Potomac river as well as a large frontage on Dogue Creek, with valuable fishing shores. The property is improved by the old mansion house, familiarly known for many years as the "White House," a sub house, barns, stables, out-buildings and tenant houses. It is situted on the county road between Mt. Vernon and Accotink and is about four miles by road from Mt. Vernon. This property is one of the most historic in the section and would make a very desirable country estate because of its location and the opportunities afforded for fishing and shooting.

Terms of Sale:—One-third cash and residue in 3 equal annual payments at one, two and three years from the date of the confirmation of the sale with interest from the said date of the confirmation of sale at the rate of six per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually, with right to anticipate the time of paying the deferred payments, secured by retention of title till paid.

Physicians Failed To Help Mrs. Green, But She Finally Found Relief in Cardui.

Meetze, Va.—Mrs. J. C. Green of this place, says: "I suffered with womanly troubles so that I could hardly sit up. Two of the best doctors in our town treated me, and I tried different medicines, until I gave up all hope of ever getting well.

One day, I decided to try some Cardui. It did so much for me that I ordered some more, and it cured me! Today, I feel as well as I ever did in my life.

The pains and the trouble are all gone. I feel like another person in every way. I wish every sufferer could know what Cardui will do for sick women."

A few doses of Cardui at the right time, will save many a big doctor bill, by preventing serious sickness.

It tones up the nervous system, and helps make pale cheeks fresh and rosy.

Thousands of weak women have been restored to health and happiness by using Cardui. Suppose you try it.

It may be just the medicine you need.
